New Graduate Student Enrollment Process

- Mid-February
  - Fall 2016 schedule of classes displayed

- Mid-February
  - Consent to do University business electronically

- Financial Responsibility Agreement (FRA)
  - Students promise to take financial responsibility for payment of his/her account

- Early March
  - Financial aid awarding begins; students can accept aid

- Mid-Late March
  - Enrollment begins for degree students; shopping carts open

- August 22
  - First day of classes for fall 2016

- Mid-August
  - New student orientation

- Mid-July
  - First fall 2016 tuition bills available

- August 27
  - End of drop period

- Process begins again for spring 2017

NOTE: Students are only considered officially enrolled when they have:

1. Signed the Financial Responsibility Agreement (FRA), which outlines the student’s financial obligations
2. Enrolled for classes

Unable to register for spring 2017 classes if fall 2016 bill is unpaid